LaborIQ® Index

The proprietary LaborIQ Market Ranking Index identifies and tracks 10 key performance indicators that best measure and rank a local economy's performance. These indicators or variables are present in every market and represent the greatest drivers of a market's economic progress or decline and labor market recovery from the pandemic.

The ranking index provides a strong evaluation of which U.S. cities and metro areas are attracting talent, recouping jobs and those primed for recruiting and hiring.

Labor Market Highlights | Austin, Texas

- Of the 50 largest metros, Austin is 1 of 3 that has already recovered all jobs
- Highest working-age population growth suggests the supply of talent will grow at a faster pace in Austin than anywhere in the U.S. the next five years
- Some industries recovered before the end of 2020 – rare for anywhere in the U.S. – which shows the strength of Austin’s labor market
